Q08 Understanding Check

Question. A power law fit to validation loss predicts a lower loss for a 10x larger model. Why does this not by itself prove an improvement on a particular reasoning benchmark?

Expected answer. The fit concerns its measured loss under a specific regime; downstream benchmark behavior can have different sensitivity, thresholds, contamination, or a regime shift. Evaluate that task separately.

Diagnoses the misconception that one loss forecast certifies every downstream capability.